

World Book Day 2023

Thursday 2nd March was World Book Day and all staff and pupils at Oakway took part by dressing up as a character from their favourite book. Each classroom door was also decorated and throughout the day the children went for a walk around school to guess the books! Well done to everyone who dressed up!

of ROCK
THE MUSICAL

Focus on Oakway Choir

This year the children in choir have been working hard learning the songs to 'School of Rock' in order to take part in the NMPAT Big Sing at the Derngate theatre in Northampton last night.

The children were part of a massed choir made up of 16 different schools from all across Northamptonshire who supported the NMPAT pupils perform 'School of Rock' to a sold out audience with many parents watching via a live stream to the Derngate foyer. The children even took part in a special birthday message recording to be sent to Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber who wrote 'School of Rock'.

Congratulations to all of the choir including Miss Mayes and Miss Morgan for all your hard work in learning all the songs and putting on such a great show last night! You represented Oakway amazingly and Mrs Byron and Mrs Aitken who came to watch were very proud of you! #PRIDE
