

On Saturday 6th May 2023, King Charles will celebrate his official coronation alongside his wife the Queen Consort Camilla.

Please see information below for how we are going to celebrate this occasion at Oakway

Bake off

Are you the next budding Mary Berry or Prue Leith? As part of our coronation celebrations we will be holding an Oakway Bake Off competition with judging on the morning of Friday 5th May.

Cakes should be brought to The Square via Main Reception by the morning of Friday 5th May for judging later that morning.

In addition to this we shall be having a cake sale after school on Friday on KS1 playground

Mufti day

On Friday 5th May, Children can come to school in mufti with the theme of red, white and blue.

Poetry Competition

Wellingborough library are running a poetry writing competition to win a Laser Maze voucher.

Your poem can be in any form but must be about the King and Queen Consort.

If you would like to take part please send any entries to your child's class teacher by Thursday 27th April.

Design your own crown

Traditionally at the coronation ceremony, the new King and Queen will wear traditional jewelled crowns! We are holding a crown design competition which children can take part in to win an Amazon voucher.

Children may wish to draw their design, create a paper model or get creative and create a 3-D model of their crown! Crowns need to be handed in to class teachers by Thursday 4th May.
